1. Basis of Presenting Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Kansai Paint Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries (together the "Companies") have been prepared in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and their related accounting regulations and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"), which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirements from International Financial Reporting Standards.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been restructured and translated into English, with some expanded descriptions, from the consolidated financial statements of the Company prepared in accordance with Japanese GAAP and filed with the appropriate Local Finance Bureau of the Ministry of Finance as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. Certain supplementary information included in the statutory consolidated financial statements in Japanese, but not required for fair presentation, is not presented in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The translations of the Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan, using the prevailing exchange rate at March 31, 2025, which was ¥149.52 to U.S. $1.00. The translations should not be construed as representations that the Japanese yen amounts have been, could have been or could in the future be converted into U.S. dollars at this or any other rate of exchange. Amounts less than 1 million yen have been rounded down. As a result, the totals in Japanese yen shown in the consolidated financial statements do not necessarily agree with the sum of the individual amounts.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 include the accounts of the Company and its 112 (104 at March 31, 2024) significant subsidiaries. Intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated. Investment in 8 unconsolidated subsidiaries and 23 affiliates in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 (9 and 23, respectively, at March 31, 2024) are stated at cost, adjusted for equity in undistributed earnings and losses since acquisition.

The accounts of 91 consolidated subsidiaries in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 (84 on March 31, 2024) are included on the basis of their respective fiscal years end on December 31. These subsidiaries do not prepare for consolidation purposes statements for the period which corresponds with the fiscal year of the Company, which ends on March 31. For these consolidated subsidiaries, when there are significant transactions between their respective fiscal year end and that of the Company, necessary adjustments are made to reflect the transactions in the consolidated financial statements.

In the elimination of investments in subsidiaries, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiaries, including the portion attributable to non-controlling interests, are evaluated using the fair value at the time the Company acquired control of the respective subsidiary.

From the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, the fiscal year-end of Kuboko Paint Co., Ltd. has been changed from February 28 to March 31, the same date as the consolidated financial statement. Accordingly, for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, the Company consolidated the financial statements of this consolidated subsidiary for the 13-month period from March 1, 2024, to March 31, 2025, and the effect of the change in the fiscal year-end was adjusted for on the consolidated statements of profit and loss. The effect of this change on net sales, operating income, ordinary income, and income before income taxes were immaterial.

Unification of accounting policies applied to foreign subsidiaries for the consolidated financial statements

Accounting Standards Board of Japan ("ASBJ") issued ASBJ Practical Issues Task Force (PITF) No. 18, Practical Solution on Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for the Consolidated Financial Statements. PITF No. 18 prescribes that the accounting policies and procedures applied to a parent company and its subsidiaries for similar transactions and events under similar circumstances should in principle be unified for the presentation of the consolidated financial statements. Moreover, if the financial statements of foreign subsidiaries are prepared in accordance with IFRS or U.S. GAAP, they may tentatively be used for the consolidation process. However, if the five specified items are material to the group's consolidated financial statements, then they should be adjusted for in the consolidation process.

Allowance for doubtful receivables

The allowance for doubtful receivables is determined by adding the estimated uncollectible amounts of individual receivables to an amount calculated using a rate based on past experience.

Provision for bonuses

To provide for employee bonuses, the estimated amount to be paid out in the next year is recorded under liabilities in the current year.

Securities

Held-to-maturity debt securities are stated at amortized cost. Investments in securities other than equity securities without market prices are stated at fair value. Cost on these securities are reported, net of applicable income taxes, as a separate component of accumulated other comprehensive income. Realized gains and losses on the sale of such securities are computed using moving average cost.

Investments in equity securities without market prices are stated mainly by the moving average cost method. If the fair value of investments in equity securities without market prices declines significantly, the securities are written down to the fair value with a corresponding charge in the consolidated statements of income. In these cases, the fair value will be the carrying amount of the securities at the beginning of the next year.

Inventories

Inventories held for the purpose of ordinary sale are stated principally at the lower of moving average cost or net realized value.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed primarily using the declining balance method for the Company and the domestic consolidated subsidiaries and the straight-line method for overseas consolidated subsidiaries. For the Company and the domestic consolidated subsidiaries, buildings (excluding facilities attached to buildings) acquired after March 31, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired after March 31, 2016 are depreciated using the straight-line method.

Software costs

Software held for own use, recorded in intangible assets, is amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life (mainly five years).

Amortization of goodwill

Goodwill is amortized using the straight-line method over an appropriate period not to exceed 20 years.

Research and development expenses

Research and development expenses are charged to income as incurred. Research and development expenses for the years ended March 31, 2025 and 2024 were $10,037$ million ($67,128$ thousand) and $9,098$ million, respectively.

Income taxes

Income taxes comprise corporation tax, prefectural and municipal inhabitants' taxes and enterprise tax. Enterprise tax is deducted from taxable income when paid.

The asset-liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes.

Finance leases

Finance leases which do not transfer ownership of the lease assets are capitalized and depreciated by the straight-line method over the term of the lease with the assumption of no residual value.

Right of use assets

Depreciation of right of use assets is calculated by using the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease term or the useful life of the asset with a residual value of zero.

Retirement benefits

- (1) Method used to attribute expected benefit payments to periods of service In determining retirement benefit obligations, the benefit formula basis is used for attributing expected benefit payments to periods of service.
- (2) Actuarial gains and losses and past service cost Actuarial gains and losses and past service cost are recognized in expenses using the straight-line method mainly over 13 years, which is within the average of the estimated remaining service years of the employees.

Retirement benefits for directors and corporate auditorsRetirement benefits for directors and corporate auditors of Retirement benefits for directors and corporate auditors of certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries are provided on an accrual basis in accordance with the Companies' established rules.

Provision for board incentive plan trust

Provision for a board incentive plan trust is provided based on the estimated amounts to be granted to eligible Board Directors and Executive Officers in accordance with share delivery regulations.

Cash and cash equivalents

In preparing the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash on hand, readily available deposits and short-term highly liquid investments with maturities not exceeding three months at the time of purchase are considered to be cash and cash equivalents.

Derivatives

The Companies state derivative financial instruments at fair value and recognize any change in the fair value as gain or loss, unless the derivative financial instruments are used for hedging purposes.

Accounting policy for recognition of significant revenues and expenses

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized based on the following five-step approach.

- Step 1: Identify the contracts with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies the performance obligation

The Companies' principal business is the manufacture and sale of paints and related services. The Companies' performance obligation is primarily to supply finished products to customers. Revenue from these products is recognized when control of the promised product or service is transferred to the customer because the Companies fulfill the performance obligations at that time. The Companies recognize revenue at the time of shipment when the period from the time of shipment until the time that control of the merchandise or finished goods is transferred to the customer is a typical period in cases of domestic sales of merchandise and finished goods in Japan.

The transaction price is calculated by deducting the estimated amount of any discount, etc., from the consideration promised to the customer in the contract.

The Companies receive payments or other consideration for fulfilling obligations generally within one year, and this does not include a significant financial component.

Significant hedge accounting methods

- (1) Hedge accounting method
 - If derivative financial instruments are used as hedges and meet certain hedging criteria, the Companies defer recognition of gain or loss resulting from changes in the fair value until the related loss or gain on the hedged item is recognized. However, in cases in which forward foreign exchange contracts are used as hedges and meet certain hedging criteria, the foreign currency receivables or payables are translated at the contracted rate.
- (2) Hedging instruments and hedged items Hedging instruments include foreign currency forward contracts, etc.. Hedged items comprise receivables, payables, and forecasted transactions denominated in foreign currencies.
- (3) Hedging policy
 - The Companies utilize forward exchange contracts to reduce the risk of exchange rate fluctuations associated with receivables, payables and forecasted transactions denominated in foreign currencies within actual demand.
- (4) Assessment method for hedge effectiveness Hedge effectiveness is not assessed for foreign currency forward contracts as the substantial terms and conditions of the hedging instruments and hedged items are the same and considered highly counterbalanced.
- (5) Transaction risk management structure

 The finance department of the Company administers hedging transactions based on the Company's rules and with the approval of management.

Net income and cash dividends per share

The calculation of net income per share is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock in issue during the year. The calculation of diluted net income per share is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock in issue during the year after giving effect to the dilutive potential of shares to be issued upon the exercise of convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights.

Cash dividends per share presented in the accompanying consolidated statements of income are based on the dividends attributable to the profit for the year, including dividends to be paid after the end of the year.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2024 to conform to the presentation for the year ended March 31, 2025.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 (April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2024)

Valuation of investments in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S. of equity method affiliates

In our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review, an investment in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S., an affiliate accounted for by the equity method, of ¥9,134 million, was recorded in investment securities. If it is determined that goodwill related to an equity method affiliate has indicators of impairment, the Company is required to determine whether an overall investment, including goodwill, needs to be recognized for impairment. If the determination indicates that the recognition of an impairment loss is necessary, the carrying amount is written down to the recoverable amount, and the reduction in the carrying amount is recognized as an equity in loss of affiliates.

With respect to investments in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S., there was an indication of impairment in goodwill related to equity method affiliates, and the Company assessed whether to recognize an impairment loss. As a result of the assessment, "the sum of undiscounted future cash flows from the investment" exceeds the "carrying amount of the investment in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S.," the Company has determined that it is unnecessary to recognize an impairment loss in the current fiscal year. The total undiscounted future cash flows are estimated based on the business plan for the following fiscal year and beyond.

The Company believes that its estimates of the total undiscounted future cash flows are reasonable. However, as the business plan for the following fiscal year and beyond uses assumptions that involve uncertainties, such as future sales volumes and unit prices, changes in the market or unpredictable economic and business assumptions could have an impact on the Company's financial position and results of operations for the following fiscal year.

Fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 (April 1, 2024 - March 31, 2025)

There was no applicable matter to report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025.

Accounting standards issued but not yet effective

- •Accounting Standards for lease (Corporate Accounting Standards No. 34, September 13, 2024 Accounting Standards Board of Japan)
- •Implementation Guidelines on Accounting Standard for lease accounting (Corporate Accounting Standards Application Guideline No. 33, September 13, 2024 Accounting Standards Board of Japan)

(1) Summary

The Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) considered the development of lease accounting that a lessee recognizes all leased assets and the corresponding liabilities on balance sheet in light of IFRS 16, as part of the convergence efforts to align the Japanese GAAP with the IFRS.

As a fundamental policy, ASBJ decided to absorb the primary provisions of IFRS 16, with a single lessee accounting model, rather than taking all the provisions of IFRS 16 into account. As a result of absorbing the primary provisions, ASBJ published the lease accounting principles that aim to apply the provisions of IFRS 16 to separate financial statements with simplicity and convenience and without the need for revision basically.

Accounting standards for lease apply a single lessee accounting model that recognizes depreciation expenses on right-of-use assets and interest expenses on the lease liabilities with respect to expense distribution of lessees regardless of finance lease or operating lease, as with IFRS 16.

- (2) Effective date

 Effective from the beginning of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2028.
- (3) Impact of the adoption of the new accounting standards The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of the "Accounting Standard for lease," etc. on its consolidated financial statements.

Additional Information (Year ended March 31, 2025) A Performance-based Stock Compensation Plan

The Company has introduced a performance-based stock compensation plan (hereinafter, the "Plan") for Board Directors (excluding Outside Board Directors; hereinafter the same shall apply), Managing Executive Officers, Senior Executive Officers and Executive Officers (hereinafter collectively, "Board Directors, etc.," excluding non-residents in Japan) as a transparent and objective remuneration plan for officers that is highly linked with the Company's performance for the purpose of further raising awareness of helping improve the Company's medium-to-longterm business results and increase corporate value, in addition to awareness of corporate management that emphasizes shareholders.

(1) Overview of the transactions

The Plan adopts a scheme called the Board Incentive Plan ("BIP") trust (hereinafter, "BIP Trust"). A BIP Trust is a plan that delivers and provides (hereinafter, "delivers/delivery, etc.") Company shares as well as money in an amount equivalent to Company shares converted into cash (hereinafter, "Company Shares, etc.") to Board Directors, etc. according to the relevant Board Director, etc.'s position and his/her achievement of business performance targets, as with performance shares and restricted stock in Europe and the United States.

The Plan shall apply to three fiscal years that correspond to the target period of the Company's medium-term management plan, and delivers, etc. Company Shares, etc. according to the relevant Board Director's position, and achievement, etc. of business performance targets for each fiscal year at the time of the Board Director's retirement.

(2) Company shares remaining in the trust Company shares remaining in the trust are recognized as treasury stock under net assets based on the carrying amount in the BIP trust (less ancillary expenses). The carrying amount and the number of shares of the treasury stock were ¥498 million ($3,330 thousand) and 252,629 shares as of March 31, 2025 (¥580 million and 294,133 shares as of March 31, 2024).

3. Financial Instruments

1. Status of financial instruments

(1) Policies on financial instruments

The Companies procure funds necessary for capital investment and raise short-term working capital mainly through bank loans and the issuance of bonds. The Companies manage temporary surplus funds through financial assets that have a high level of safety. The Companies use derivative financial instruments to hedge foreign currency exchange rate fluctuation risk and do not enter into derivative transactions for trading or speculative purposes.

(2) Details of financial instruments and associated risks

Trade notes and accounts receivable are exposed to customer credit risk. In addition, receivables denominated in foreign currencies from overseas operations are exposed to the risk of exchange rate fluctuations. Investment securities are primarily the stocks of business partners and customers and are exposed to market price fluctuation risk.

Most trade notes and accounts payable are due for payment within one year. Those denominated in foreign currencies are exposed to the risk of exchange rate fluctuations. The Companies generally raise working capital required for business transactions through short-term borrowings and procure funds required for capital expenditure and investment through long-term debt and bonds. The Companies use foreign currency forward contracts, currency option contracts and currency swap contracts to reduce the risk of exchange rate fluctuations associated with receivables, payables, forecasted transactions and equity investments in foreign subsidiaries denominated in foreign currencies within the actual demand. Refer to "Significant hedge accounting methods" in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies," for a description of the Company's accounting policies related to hedging activities.

- (3) Risk management framework for financial instruments
 - 1) Credit risk management (counterparty risk)

The Company has established internal rules and procedures for receivables under which the Business Planning & Administration Division and Finance and Accounting Department are primarily responsible for monitoring counterparty status. The departments manage amounts and settlement dates by counterparty and work to quickly identify and mitigate payment risk that may result from situations such as the deterioration of the financial condition of a counterparty. Consolidated subsidiaries of the Company are subject to the same risk management rules. In using derivative transactions, the Company mitigates counterparty risk by conducting transactions with financial institutions with high credit ratings.

2) Market risk management (risk of exchange rate and interest rate fluctuations)

For some receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies, the Companies use foreign currency forward contracts and currency option contracts to hedge the risk of exchange rate fluctuations on a monthly and currency-by-currency basis. For securities and investment securities, the Companies periodically examine the fair value of the instruments and the financial condition of the issuing entities. In addition, the Companies regularly evaluate whether securities other than those classified as held-to-maturity should be maintained, taking into account their fair values and relationship with the issuing entities.

For derivative transactions, the Finance & Accounting Department handles the transactions after receiving approval from those with final approval authority in accordance with the Company's internal rules. Administrative reports on the results are periodically provided to the Management Committee.

- 3) Management of liquidity risk associated with capital procurement (payment default risk)
 In the Companies, the Finance & Accounting Department is responsible for maintaining adequate liquidity and manages liquidity risk by creating and updating a capital deployment plan based on reports from each division.
- (4) Supplementary explanations about matters concerning fair value of financial instruments

 The fair value of financial instruments is calculated using certain assumptions and may differs if the assumptions change.

2. Fair value information of financial instruments

Book values of the financial instruments included in the consolidated balance sheets and their fair values at March 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

3. Fair value information for financial instruments by level of inputs

Based on the observability and the significance of the inputs used to determine fair value, fair value information for financial instruments is presented by categorizing the measurements into the following three levels:

Level 1 fair value: the fair value measured by quoted prices of identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 fair value: the fair value measured using observable inputs other than Level 1.

Level 3 fair value: fair values measured using unobservable inputs.

When multiple inputs from different categories are used in measuring the fair value, the Company and its subsidiaries classify the fair values into the lowest category from which inputs were used.

Notes:

Valuation techniques and inputs used in measuring fair values

Securities and investment securities

Listed equity securities are measured using quoted prices. The fair value of listed equity securities is classified as Level 1 because they are exchanged in active markets. The fair value of corporate bonds and investment trust beneficiary certificates are classified as Level 2 because their quoted prices are not considered derived from active markets due to the low frequency of their transactions.

Derivative transactions

Derivatives classified as Level 2 are measured using valuation techniques such as the discounted cash flow method, based on observable inputs including interest rates and foreign exchange rates.

Short-term borrowings and Short-term bonds payable

The fair value of short-term borrowings and short-term bonds payable are classified as Level 2, because their quoted prices are not considered quoted prices from active markets due to the low frequency of the transactions.

Bonds payable and convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights

The fair value of bonds payable and convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights are classified as Level 2, because their quoted prices are not considered quoted prices from active markets due to low frequency of transactions.

^{*} Derivative assets and liabilities were on a net basis.

(4) Write-down of securities

For the year ended March 31, 2025, an impairment loss of ¥2,045 million ($13,677 thousand) related to an investment in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S., an affiliate accounted for using the equity method, was recognized as an equity in loss of affiliates.

In the consolidated financial statements, the amounts of investment in this affiliate, recorded in investment securities, were $48,439 million ($56,440 thousand) and $9,134 million, for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The disclosure in relation to the write-down of securities for the year ended March 31, 2024 is omitted due to lack of materiality. Write-down is recognized if the fair value has fallen to less than 50% of the acquisition cost. If the fair value is less than the acquisition cost by an amount between 30% and 50% of the acquisition cost, write-down is recognized as deemed necessary considering the recoverability of the value. Write-down of securities with no fair value is basically recognized if the financial condition is deteriorating and the value is less than 50% of the acquisition cost unless the value is considered to be recoverable on an individual basis.

5. Short-Term Debt and Long-Term Debt

Annual interest rates on the short-term debt ranged from 0.04% to 56.35% at March 31, 2025 and from 0.01% to 50.40% at March 31, 2024.

(2) Derivative transactions to which the Companies applied hedge accounting

The disclosure in relation to the derivative transactions to which the Companies applied hedge accounting for the year ended March 31, 2025 is omitted due to lack of materiality.

The disclosure in relation to the derivative transactions to which the Companies applied hedge accounting for the year ended March 31, 2024 is omitted due to lack of materiality.

8. Related Party Transactions

- (1) The company did not have any transactions with related parties for the year ended March 31, 2025 and 2024.
- (2) Transactions of the consolidated subsidiaries of the Company with related parties during the years ended March 31, 2025 and 2024 are omitted, since the amount did not reach the disclosure standard.

9. Net Assets

Under Japanese laws and regulations, the entire amount paid for new shares is required to be designated as common stock. However, a company may, by a resolution of the Board of Directors, designate an amount not exceeding one half of the price of the new shares as additional paid-in capital, which is included in capital surplus.

Under the Japanese Corporate Law, in cases in which a dividend distribution of surplus is made, the smaller of an amount equal to 10% of the dividend or the excess, if any, of 25% of common stock over the total of additional paid-in capital and legal earnings reserve must be set aside as additional paid-in capital or legal earnings reserve. Legal earnings reserve is included in retained earnings in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Legal earnings reserve and additional paid-in capital may be used to eliminate or reduce a deficit by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting. All additional paid-in capital and all legal earnings reserve may be transferred to other capital surplus and retained earnings, respectively, which are potentially available for dividends.

The maximum amount that the Company can distribute as dividends is calculated based on the non-consolidated financial statements of the Company in accordance with Japanese laws and regulations.

At the annual shareholders' meeting held on June 27, 2025, the shareholders approved cash dividends of ¥28.0 ($0.18) per share, amounting to ¥4,983 million ($33,326 thousand). This appropriation was not accounted for in the consolidated financial statements at March 31, 2025. Such appropriations are recognized in the period in which they are approved by the shareholders.

^{*} The fair values of derivative transactions are determined at the quoted prices obtained from the relevant financial institutions.

10. Comprehensive Income

Reclassification adjustments and tax effects for each component of other comprehensive income for the years ended March 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

12. Employees' Severance and Retirement Benefits

The Company and some of the consolidated subsidiaries have defined benefit plans, i.e., corporate pension fund plans and lump-sum payment plans. The Company and certain consolidated subsidiaries have defined contribution pension plans. Some of the consolidated subsidiaries use the simplified method for the calculation of net defined benefit liability and retirement benefit costs. In certain cases, the Company and some of the consolidated subsidiaries pay additional retirement benefits upon the retirement of employees.

(1) Defined benefit plans

1) Reconciliation of beginning and ending balances of the retirement benefit obligations (except plans applying the simplified method) at March 31, 2025 and 2024 was as follows:

(4) Amendments to deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities due to changes in corporate income tax rates, etc.

Following the enactment of the "Act on Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act, etc." (Act No. 13 of 2025) by the Diet on March 31, 2025, "Special Defense Corporation Tax" will be imposed from fiscal years beginning on or after April 1, 2026. Accordingly, the effective statutory income tax rate used to measure deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities has been revised from 30.6% to 31.5% for temporary differences expected to be resolved from the fiscal year beginning on April 1, 2026. As a result of these changes, deferred tax liabilities (net amount after deduction of deferred tax assets) increased by ¥390 million ($2,608 thousand), income taxes-deferred increased by ¥206 million ($1,377 thousand), remeasurements of defined benefit plans decreased by ¥112 million ($749 thousand), and net unrealized holding gains on securities decreased by ¥71 million ($474 thousand).

14. Leases

(As lessee)

(1) Finance leases

Finance lease transactions without title transfer

- 1) Leased assets
 - Tangible fixed assets
 - Consisting of buildings and structures, etc.
- 2) Depreciation and amortization methods for leased assets
 As described in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies Finance leases"
- (2) Operating leases

Future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases at March 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

| | | Millions | of yen | | usands of llars (Note 1) |

16. Impairment Loss

Impairment loss for the year ended March 31, 2025 was as follows.

| | | | Millio | ns of yen | usands of llars (Note 1) | |
|------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|-----------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| Location | Use | Type of assets | 2 | 025 | 2025 | Accounting Items on Consolidated Statements of Income |

| China | Assets for operations | Machinery, equipment and vehicles, Tools, furniture and fixtures etc. | ¥ | 133 | $ 889 | Loss on withdrawal from business |
| Total | | | ¥ | 812 | $ 5,430 | |

The Companies group assets for operations based on operating activities. Assets to be sold are grouped based on each asset. For other in Germany, regarding the goodwill of Kansai HELIOS Wefa GmbH, a consolidated subsidiary of the Company, the possibility of achieving the initially expected revenues has diminished due to a deteriorating business environment. Consequently, the unamortized balance of goodwill was written down to zero, and an impairment loss of ¥106 million ($708 thousand) was recognized.

For assets for operations in Bangladesh, the carrying amounts were reduced to the recoverable amounts, and a loss on withdrawal from business of ¥572 million ($3,825 thousand) was recognized when the decision to exit the business was made. Recoverable amounts are measured at either net sale prices or estimated disposal price or by other means. As the factory buildings and related assets were expected to be difficult to sell or repurpose for other business uses, the recoverable amounts were assessed to be zero.

For assets for operations in China, the carrying amounts were reduced to the recoverable amounts, and a loss on withdrawal from business of ¥133 million ($889 thousand) was recognized when the decision to exit the business was made. Recoverable amounts are measured at either net sale prices or estimated disposal price or by other means.

Impairment loss for the year ended March 31, 2024 was as follows.

| | | | Millions | of yen |

| Location | Use | Type of assets | 20 | 24 |
| Germany etc. | Assets for operations | Buildings and structures etc. | ¥ | 69 |
| Total | | | ¥ | 69 |

The Companies group assets for operations based on operating activities. Assets to be sold are grouped based on each asset. For assets for operations, the carrying amounts were reduced to the recoverable amounts, and an impairment loss of ¥69 million was recognized when it was determined that the recoverable amount due to disposal is lower than the carrying amount. Recoverable amounts are measured at either net sale prices or estimated disposal price or by other means.

17. Segment Information

1. Segment information

(1) General information for reportable segments

The reportable segments of the Kansai Paint Group are defined as components of the Group for which separate financial information is available and reviewed regularly by the Board of Directors in determining how to allocate management resources and evaluate operating performance. The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries and affiliates are primarily engaged in the manufacturing and sale of paints and coatings. The Company is mainly in charge of business activities in Japan while locally incorporated overseas subsidiaries are in charge in each region. Locally incorporated overseas subsidiaries are independent business units that develop their own business activities and establish their own comprehensive strategies in each region. Accordingly, the Kansai Paint Group, being composed of regional segments based on manufacturing and selling systems, has the following five reportable segments: Japan, India, Europe, Asia and Africa.

- (2) Methods of measurement for sales, profit and loss, assets and essentially all other items for each reportable segment

 The accounting methods applied to reportable segments are the same as those described in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies." Intersegment sales and transfers are based on prevailing market prices.
- (3) Information about sales, profit and loss, assets and other material items by reportable segment Segment information for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

The Companies apply the practical expedient method in which amounts do not include transaction prices allocated to performance obligations of a contract in which that performance obligation has an original expected duration of one year or less. There was no significant consideration from contracts with customers which was not included in the transaction price.

19. Effect of Bank Holiday

As financial institutions in Japan were closed on March 31, 2024, amounts of the following accounts that would normally be settled on March 31, 2024 were collected or paid on the following business day. Consequently, the impact on the consolidated financial statements was as follows.

| | Millions of yen | | | | Thousands of U.S. dollars (Note 1) | | |

Because it is difficult to reasonably estimate the number of options that will expire in the future, the number of stock options vested only reflects the number of options that have actually expired.

Independent auditor's report

To the Board of Directors of KANSAI PAINT Co., Ltd.:

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of KANSAI PAINT Co., Ltd. ("the Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as at March 31, 2025 and 2024, the consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as at March 31, 2025 and 2024, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Appropriateness of the valuation of the investment in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S., an affiliate accounted for using the equity method

The key audit matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

As described in Note 4, "Securities, (4) Write-down of securities" to the consolidated financial statements, Kansai Paint Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, the "Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") recognized the investment in Polisan Kansai Boya Sanayi Ve Ticaret A.S. (an affiliate accounted for using the equity method; hereinafter, "Polisan") amounting to \frac{\pmax}{8},439 million in investment securities in the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2025. In addition, equity in earnings of unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates recognized in the consolidated statements of income included an impairment loss of \frac{\pmax}{2},040 million on the investment.

Whenever it is determined that there is an impairment indicator for goodwill related to affiliates accounted for using the equity method, the entire investment including goodwill needs to be tested for impairment. If the recognition of an impairment loss is deemed necessary, the carrying amount is reduced to the recoverable amount, and the resulting decrease in the carrying amount is recognized as equity in losses of unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates.

With respect to the investment in Polisan, the Group identified an impairment indicator for the goodwill related to affiliates accounted for using the equity method and performed an impairment test. In the impairment testing, since the carrying amount of the investment in Polisan exceeded the total amount of undiscounted future cash flows that were expected to be generated from the investment, it was concluded that the recognition of an impairment loss was necessary.

The Company used the value in use as the recoverable amount in measuring an impairment loss. Assumptions involving uncertainty, such as an increase in future sales volume, were mainly used to estimate the future cash flows for measuring the value in use. Accordingly, management's judgment on these assumptions had a significant effect on the estimated future cash flows.

In addition, selecting appropriate models and input data for estimating the discount rate used to calculate the value in use requires a high degree of expertise in valuation. Moreover, selecting appropriate valuation methods to calculate the net selling price of land, which was used for measuring the value in use, also required a high degree of

The primary procedures we performed to assess the appropriateness of the valuation of the investment in Polisan, an affiliate accounted for using the equity method, included the following:

(1) Internal control testing

We assessed the design and operating effectiveness of certain of internal controls relevant to the valuation of the investment in Polisan, with a greater focus on controls to ensure that the Group measures impairment losses in accordance with the requirements of applicable accounting standards.

(2) Assessment of the reasonableness of the estimate related to the measurement of an impairment loss

In order to assess the appropriateness of key assumptions used to measure an impairment loss, we:

- performed a comparative analysis of the sales volume, which was a key assumption for the future business plan, and historical sales volume, and assessed the consistency of the sales volume with information published by external research organizations;
- assessed the appropriateness of the selection of models and input data used for estimating the discount rate by involving valuation specialists within our domestic network firms; and expertise in valuation.
- assessed the appropriateness of the valuation method used for the real estate appraisal, which formed the basis for calculating the net selling price of land, by involving valuation specialists within our domestic network firms.

We, therefore, determined that our assessment of the appropriateness of the valuation of the investment in Polisan, an affiliate accounted for using the equity method, was of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the current fiscal year, and accordingly, a key audit matter.

Other Information

The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's reports thereon.

We do not perform any work on the other information as we determine such information does not exist.

Responsibilities of Management and the Audit and Supervisory Committee for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit and supervisory committee are responsible for overseeing the directors' performance of their duties with regard to the design, implementation and maintenance of the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

· Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the audit is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate whether the presentation and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Japan, the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the audit and supervisory committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the audit and supervisory committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the audit and supervisory committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Fee-related Information

Fees paid or payable to our firm and to other firms within the same network as our firm for audit and non-audit services provided to the Company and its subsidiaries are described in "Audit remuneration" included in "Additional Information" of the consolidated financial statements.

Convenience Translation

The U.S. dollar amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements with respect to the year ended March 31, 2025 are presented solely for convenience. Our audit also included the translation of yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made on the basis described in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.

Interest required to be disclosed by the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan

We do not have any interest in the Group which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan.
